Updated April 2012

What is it?

The Salvation Army Moneycare is a free and confidential financial counselling service.

The financial counsellors will:

- analyse and assess your financial situation,
- give you information about credit and debt issues,
- involve you in the process as much as possible,
- work with you to develop a plan to improve your situation,
- if appropriate, act as an advocate for you and negotiate with the people you owe money to,
- refer you to other assistance if necessary.

Please note that Moneycare does not lend money or provide material aid. If you need financial assistance, please contact a Salvation Army Community Services Centre near you.

Who is eligible?

This service is open to anyone having financial difficulties, for example, if you are:

- having difficulty paying debts,
- being harassed by creditors or debt collectors,
- facing legal action regarding your debts,
- dealing with car repossession,
- worried about being evicted from your home,
- having budgeting problems.

Who runs it?
